Cheating Policy
- Definition: Cheating is an action of which more than one student copy answers during an exam or share solutions or programs for an assignment.
- Consequences: All offenders get zeros for the assignment or course work. For a repeated offense, the offender will get a F.

Special Notes
- Submit assignments on time to prevent penalties.
- All assignments require demonstrations.
- Due to business trip or unforeseen medical, legal, family or other emergency, an individual make-up exam, due date extension, or quiz shelter will be warranted in a case-by-case manner. A valid formal document is required.
